This thrilling snake story comes from Perryville: Mrs. Mollie Powell, of that town, on entering her room last Saturday found a large viper coiled in the window wielding its magnetic influence over her three-months-old baby. Her brother, Mr. Thomas Humble, hearing her screams, came to her assistance and killed the snake, which measured four feet. The baby was so charmed that some time elapsed before it regained consciousness. Probably the oldest woman in Kentucky lives in Greenup county. Her name is Catherine Brown and she was born Jan. 29, 1797, making her now past 104. She is a woman of remarkable strength and her mind is as good as ever it was. She walks without a cane, sews without glasses and never took a dose of medicine in her life.

The United States grants about 25,000 patents each year, or nearly three-fourths of all granted by the rest of the world combined. England ranks next with about 8,000 patents to her credit.

M. S. BAUGHMAN.

Familiarly known as "Smith," democratic nominee for sheriff, has hit as many hard hits for the cause of democracy in Lincoln county as the next one and is a democrat in all the word implies. As member of the county committee he spent both his time and means freely to advance the interests of the party he loves, and that he stands well with the "boys in the trenches" is shown by the good majority he got over a field of excellent gentlemen in the primary of March last. A conservative democrat all along the line, he was particularly warm for Bryan and Goebel and his work for them will not be forgotten. The people have an opportunity to partly repay Mr. Baughman for his valiant services and they will take pleasure in giving him what he wants in November. Mr. Baughman is a typical sheriff in appearance, standing over six feet and weighing 270 pounds, and he has both the energy and courage to serve any paper placed in his hands. There is talk of the republicans giving him opposition, but that is a matter of little or no importance. It is "writ" that Smith Baughman will be Lincoln county's next sheriff and by the eternal he's going to be. His legions of friends will have nothing less than four years of his services as high sheriff.

Our section boss, Mr. Patterson, is working 11 men on his section now, laying new steel weighing 70 pounds to the yard and 11 yards long. They are nearly to the top of the grade East of here, but no new rails are to be laid between here and Junction City.

Mrs. Willis Wheelis, of Paducah, has written to Supt. Doak, of the house of reform, denying that she or her husband have made any complaints alleging that their daughter, Dolly Wheelis, was kicked down stairs at the institution, receiving injuries, and afterwards refused medical attention by the house surgeon. She says there is no truth in the report, and that she did not start it. Dolly Wheelis was paroled by the governor, and is now seriously ill at her home.

Is a Candidate for Railroad Commissioner for the 2d District, subject to the will of the democracy.

THE Courier-Journal of Sunday devotes a column or so to a write-up of Collector Sapp, who is the man of the hour in the republican party just now. The effort to oust him from the collector's office at Louisville and put in his place a bolting democrat rather makes us feel good toward Sapp, and we hope he will be able to hold his job until some sure enough democrat is given the office. Between an out and out republican and a "flopper," we are for the first named every time, and that's the reason why we favor Charles E. Sapp to Joe E. Craft in this fight.

THAT wheel-horse democrat, James I. Hamilton, nominee for county attorney of Garrard, made a rousing speech to the democracy at Lancaster yesterday. The republicans gave him no opposition for the office, but that will not lessen in the least Mr. Hamilton's work for the splendid ticket named in our sister county and we expect to hear good news from her when the idea of November come. There isn't a better worker in the State than Mr. Hamilton and his valiant fight for democracy's cause should not, and will not, be forgotten.

LOUISVILLE republicans, including Booker Reed, held a secret meeting with a view to putting a new ticket in the field, but adjourned until next Friday night when some conclusion will be reached. If this is done Grainger's majority in November will be larger than it was in the primary that nominated him.

THE Critic and the Free Lance of Louisville, have been consolidated and will appear henceforth as the Critic. Mr. Daniel E. O'Sullivan, who has been editor of the Free Lance, will be editor of the Critic and he will do some good work for the splendid ticket of his city, headed by C. F. Grainger for mayor.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY must be getting ready for the country fairs. A dispatch says that his pair of blacks have arrived from Washington and added to his already good-sized string at Canton. Who knows but what he is getting his horses in shape for the Huntington fair next week?

THIS is an age of wonders. Just think of this sent from Taylorsville: "The drouth in Spencer county was broken by rain." An entirely new way of breaking drouths. Other counties should adopt this peculiar method.

HON. W. J. BRYAN thinks that the democrats should nominate a Southern man for president next time. We take it that Mr. Bryan no longer considers himself presidential timber.

A STORY comes from Georgia that a fire was extinguished by throwing water-melons on it. It might have been believed had it not been told that the melons were thrown by Negroes.

THE Lexington Democrat has discarded its scary looking headline type and substituted a more suitable and cleaner looking letter. A decided change for the better.

It is said that Congressman James D. Richardson, of Tennessee, will be a candidate for governor of Tennessee, and that former Gov. Robert L. Taylor wishes to succeed Gen. Bate as United States Senator.

W. P. Walton, of the Harrodsburg Democrat, announces his candidacy for railroad commissioner. He should have the nomination without opposition on account of his superb fitness for the place. He is a man of fine business talent and would make an excellent commissioner.—Mt. Vernon Signal.

Jo A. Parker, chairman of the people's party National committee, has issued a call for a conference of Ohio populists and all those who favor the amalgamation of all independent reform forces into an allied third party, to meet in Columbus July 30, for the purpose of placing a State ticket in the field for the gubernatorial election.

Report of Sale, Etc.

J. P. Chandler, auctioneer, reports a large sale of Green Sutton, deceased, about two miles south of Mt. Vernon. S. H. Martin being the administrator. One pair of mules brought $122, yearlings $23, horses $59, cows and calves from $24 to $28, hogs from $2.80 to $8.60 and old corn brought $2.45 to $2.80. A lot sold well and the largest lot of household goods I have ever tackled, there being about $100 worth of feathers sold. A large crowd and plenty to eat and about 40 candidates for the nominations for the various offices on the republican ticket. About 20 were running for the office of assessor. It seems from all I could gather Mr. Tate was in the lead for sheriff. I was telling one of the gentlemen who is a candidate for county judge of Rockcastle, what a clever judge we had in Lincoln, how polite he was. I went into his office some time last winter, when he was running for the democratic nomination, and he shook hands with me with both hands and wanted me to take two chairs. J. P. C.

FOR SALE OR RENT.—Residence on Upper Main, diagonally opposite the College. Inquire of E. C. Walton.

A HART county man was here Saturday selling hand-made split baskets. He started from home with 500 but had only about half that number when he left this place.

THOSE from here who attended the charming reception given by Misses Mary and Angie Carpenter at Hustonville Friday evening, speak of it in glowing terms. There were 100 or more guests present and a most delightful evening was enjoyed by all.

REYNOLDS.—J. M. Reynolds, of Waynesburg, telephoned here yesterday for a coffin for his little five-year-old son, which died of flux Sunday night. The little fellow was at his most interesting age, and we deeply sympathize with his parents in the loss of him.

B. G. PENNINGTON has secured a good position in Louisville.—Interior Journal. This paragraph would indicate that Bowen has not bin doing any too well lately. Gentlemen who are well fixt "accept" positions—it is only those in hard lines who ever hustle around and secure a job.—Middlesboro News. Have it your own way, Brer Albrecht, but as the man more frequently hunts the job than the job the man, we insist that Mr. Pennington "secured" the job, which he is well pleased with.

MR. A. M. WOODSON, of Independence, Mo., who is visiting old friends here, paid this office a pleasant call. Mr. Woodson moved from Lincoln county to Missouri some 30 years ago and has prospered in his adopted State. He is very fond of Kentucky and keeps about as well posted on the doings of his mother State as many of us who live in it. "I am for your brother, W. P. Walton, for railroad commissioner and I think the democracy of the State owes him the office and anything else he may want," said Mr. Woodson as he left our sanctum.

REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE MEETS.—The republican county committee met here Saturday when a good many of the rads were on hand. The object of the meeting was to fix a date and manner for naming a county ticket and the following decision was reached: Each committeeman select two men in his precinct and they with the committee meet in Stanford on Saturday, Aug. 3 and nominate. A convention is called for the afternoon of that date to ratify and approve the nominations. It looks now like a ticket will be put out but it is more than probable that it will not be a full one, for it will be hard to find enough men who are willing to sacrifice themselves for slaughter at the hands of the democrats.

25c MADRAS at 19c. Severance & Sons.

THE best on earth is a Hagan Shoe. J. P. Jones.

WHITE, grey and black silk gloves. Severance & Sons.

TO FARMERS.—We are still running our mill at the same place. J. H. Baughman & Co.

WE have waited patiently on you for the money due July 1. If you don't come around this week, well call on you. Beazley Bros.

MAJOR M. W. JONES, Casey county's next judge, sends us a good write-up of the Green River church and Sunday school picnic, which will appear next issue.

THE democratic county committee will meet in Stanford at 10 o'clock Thursday morning. Every member is requested to be on hand. By order of R. C. Warren, chairman.

YESTERDAY was the hottest day in the history of Louisville, the mercury standing at 105 2 at 2 30 in the afternoon. Several thermometers here registered around the 100 mark.

30 DAYS—Perry Rout, the colored boy who stole $10 and a half dozen pocket knives from Higgins & McKinney, while working in their store, was given 30 days in jail by a jury yesterday.

THE McConaghy Oil Co., composed mostly of Boyle county people, has been organized with a capital of $10,000. The company's leases lie along Beaver and Otter creeks in Wayne county.

FOUR generations drove down to the Christian church Sunday morning in one vehicle. They were Mrs. Richard Cobb, Mrs. Bettie C. McKinney, Mrs. W. M. Bright and Master Morrison Bright.

HORSE STRAYED OR STOLEN.—A flea bitten gray gelding, between 15 and 16 hands high, left eye out, light mane and tail, left Frank Cordier's pasture some 10 days ago. Information leading to his recovery thankfully received. Will Adams, Stanford.

OUR friend, R. O. Cunningham, says he will print the first issue of his new paper, the Danville Courier, on Friday next. He comes just in time to help advertise the Hustonville fair, which a Danville man says is one of the only two fairs that will be held in the U. S. this year.

GOING TO LEAVE.—Mr. Joseph Ginsburg, of this place, has formed a partnership with Isaac Hirschman, of Cincinnati, and they have opened a ladies' and gentlemen's furnishing goods store there at 20 E. Pearl Street. Mr. Ginsburg will move his family thither this week.

WHILE driving last evening Mrs. Nannie Sauley and son, Charley, met with a painful accident. They were coming down Danville Avenue and in attempting to go around the vehicle Mr. W. H. Wearan and wife were in, struck the hitching post in front of Hon. J. N. Saunders', throwing them both out and wrecking the vehicle. Mrs. Sauley was painfully hurt about the head, while Charley has a severe cut on his head and a badly bruised back.

A LEXINGTON Leader representative, who has been to the place this season, writes as follows to his paper: The Springs hotel at Crab Orchard is enjoying fine patronage this season, and it is now one of the most popular resorts in Kentucky. There is good music daily and the regular hops Friday nights are made events long to be remembered. The water is renowned for its qualities and the Springs hotel has the reputation of presenting one of the finest menus of any summer resort in the country, all the vegetables being furnished from the Springs farm. J. B. Willis, the manager, is always courteous to visitors and makes one feel at home at all times.

A WEEK from tomorrow the best fair ever held in Lincoln county will begin at Hustonville. Everything is rapidly getting in readiness, the amphitheatre will soon be completed and in a few days stock will begin to come. Guests have already begun to arrive at the capital of the West End and the young folks are looking forward with delight to the gay festivities of fair week. A most excellent show of stock is promised, Saxton, the immortal, will make the sweetest of music, the belles and beaux of a half dozen counties will be there and there are many other reasons why you should go. Lincoln county people should recognize the fair as a county enterprise and do all in their power to make it the success it now promises to be. If you haven't seen a catalogue write to Secretary W. D. Hocker, at Hustonville, or call at this office.

THE Weir fruit jar, self sealer, made of stone; new. Higgins & McKinney.

THE cut price sale on gents' fine footwear is on in earnest; hurry if you want a pair. J. P. Jones.

THE white teachers' institute will be held here the last week in August. Prof. J. H. Patterson, of Lancaster, who gave entire satisfaction last year, will conduct it.

HUSTONVILLE.—Come in and see the great reduction of prices on tailor made suits I am offering for July and August. Don't buy a ready made suit when you can have one made to order just as cheap. A. J. Adams.

WILL BORE—Mr. Sim Middleton, who represents the Green River Oil & Coal Development Co., tells us that machinery has been ordered to bore for oil on Green River, in this county, and that inside of 60 days boring will begin.

THE colored teachers institute begun at the court-house yesterday with a fair attendance. Prof. C. C. Monroe, of Owensboro, is conductor, and F. L. Stepp secretary. The singing by the teachers is a decided feature of the institute.

LANCASTER.

G. B. Swinebroad is exulting over the birth of a fine boy at his house—a simon pure democrat.

Misses Alberta Hilton and Stella Houston and Mr. R. H. Batson left Sunday for a visit to Cynthiana.

Mr. R. H. Batson has sold his property in Paint Lick, consisting of a store room and hotel, to Mr. I. C. Rucker for $3,000 cash.

Rev. A. Martin, who is just back from England, lectured at the Christian church Sunday night. Subject, "Four Years in England."

Dr. Eliza Evans is in a very critical condition, having been hiccuping almost constantly for the past week. The worst is feared.

The ladies of the Baptist church will give a lawn fete on the graded school grounds Wednesday, the proceeds to go toward furnishing the parsonage.

Thomas White, of Preachersville, spent Saturday with friends here. Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Bradshaw, of McCreary, left Saturday to attend the Pan-American Exposition.

Mr. Sam Short, of Shelbyville, Shelby county, is visiting the family of Mr. C. D. Powell. Miss Alma Shelton Hayes, of Stanford, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Dr. Beazley. Robert Powell is quite sick. Miss Mollie Spainhower spent several days at home on account of the illness of her father.

An infant of Jim Jackson, of near Buckeye, died Saturday afternoon. Mildred, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Beazley, is very ill. Durham, the infant son of Dr. and Mrs. I. S. Wesley, continues very ill and is not expected to live. Mr. Ed Gaines, who is very ill of typhoid fever, is no better.

After a protracted illness, Mrs. W. N. Grow passed peacefully away at her home near Pleasant Hill Thursday morning. She leaves a husband and two grown sons, besides a host of friends and other relatives, to mourn her loss. She was a pure and upright Christian, and nothing too good can be said of her life. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. N. Willis at her home Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, after which she was laid to rest in the cemetery here.

Mrs. A. B. Elkin and son, of Louisville, and mother, of Richmond, are visiting the family of Mrs. Sam Johnson. Miss Allie Arnold attended the Richmond fair Friday. Miss Mabel Underwood is visiting her grandmother at Parksville. Prof. J. H. Patterson enjoyed a pleasant trip to Detroit and Buffalo. He talks of digging a canal, draining Lake Erie and making a state as large as Ohio on its bottom. He is organizing a stock company for this purpose. Mr. George B. Harris, one of our most worthy young men, has accepted the position of telegraph operator and assistant railroad agent at Pineville. He is an expert operator, a moral, industrious, intelligent young man, and the people will be pleased with his services.
